Jackson County Journal A REPRESENTATIVE PAPER OF THE CAROLINA HIGHLANDS. DAN TOMPKINS, EDITOR. Published weekly by JACKSON COUNTY JOURNAL COMPANY Matered as second class mail matter at he Postoffice at Sylva N. C. FRIDAY, DEC. 15, 1919 BROTHERHOOD. ELLA WHEELER WILCOX. God, what a world, if men in street and mart, Felt that same kinship of the human heart, Which makes them, in the face of fire and flood, Rise to the meaning of True Brother hood. "It came upon the midnight clear, That glorious song of old, From angels bending near the earth To touch their harps of gold: 'Peace on the earth, good-will to men From Heaven's all-gracious King: The earth in solemn stillness lay To hear the angels sing. Still thro' the cloven skies they come With peaceful wings unfurled, And still their heavenly music float O'er all the weary world; Above its sad and lowly plains They bend on hovering wing, And ever o'er its Babel sounds The blessed angels sing. And ye, beneath life's crushin load, Whose forms are bending low, Who toil along the climbing wa With painful steps and slow, Look now! for glad and golden hours Come swiftly on the wing; O rest beside the weary road, And hear the angels sing. For lo, the days are hastening or By prophet bards foretold, When with the evercircling year Comes round the age of gold; When peace shall over all the eart Its ancient splendors fling, And the whole world give bac the song Which now the angels sing." DISILLUSIONED. By O. LAWRENCE HAWTHORNE. You bet they can't fool me no mo With that old stuff about a San Claus! I've always fell for it before An' swallered all the gags the sprung, because I didn't know no better. Now I'm wise to what my folks're gi in' me. I'd like to have my dad tell how A guy could be where all they sa On Christmas Eve, and be at all

The houses in the world at one Gee whiz,

I wonder what my folks'd call A yarn of mine as big as that'n' An' then I'd like to see as fat A feller as his pitchers show cor

A chimbley! When it comes to the There ain't one half his size this whole town.

Last year they had me guessin' sor They had a tree at gran'pa's hou an'all

Us kids hoped Santy Claus'd come, 'Cause all of us was green enough to fall

Fer that. An' then he come! By-gee O. J. Beck judge S. L. elec I tell ya us young kids was awful glad-

An' then, right there where we could W. C. Cagle judge of elections

His face fell off an' it was jesl my

Just come in and try us out We sell goods beyond a doubt. As cheap as those who always say They have some special prices to-day, We are not like those are forced to sell We have the goads and can hold them well, But we had rather sell them right Have a nice little profit every night, Sell them so you and I can live And when those are gone another order give, If you don't think we will treat you right Just come in any day or night.

A general line of Dry Goods, Shoes, Hats and or nausea, Stout persons like the Ready-to-Wear for the family.
